

Ovarian Cancer National Conference Survivor Scholarship Application

Thank you for your interest in joining the Michigan Ovarian Cancer Alliance as we travel to Chicago to participate in the Ovarian Cancer National Conference on July 7 -9, 2017.

A few things to know before you apply:

- Advocates are responsible for securing their own travel to and from Chicago. Please contact Michelle Shepherd before booking your hotel room. We will coordinate the sharing of rooms.
- If a survivor is chosen to receive a scholarship, she will notify MIOCA as soon as possible and forego the scholarship if she becomes unable to attend the entire conference.
- Scholarship recipients are required to attend all sessions throughout the weekend.
- Scholarship recipients agree to be photographed and allow MIOCA to use those photographs in the future.
- Each scholarship recipient will write a paragraph detailing the highlights of the attending the conference.

Marcia Gurche, survivor and MIOCA Board member states, "Attending the Ovarian Cancer National Conference is a worthwhile experience. I really enjoyed hearing the latest information related to ovarian cancer and meeting so many survivors from all over the country."

Please complete the following application and return by March 31, 2017.
