

Teal Attack Registration Form

Thank you for your interest in hosting a Teal Attack sporting event. Teal Attack is a movement centered on high school and collegiate athletic events to raise awareness and donations for ovarian cancer support

About Teal Attack:

- During the month of September, National Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month, an athletic team would host a "Teal Attack" game. If the sport plays in a different time of the year, games can be held in other months.
- Both home and visiting Varsity teams would receive free Teal Attack t-shirts to wear during warm-ups, up to 15 shirts per team.
- Your athletic program or team can take the initiative to buy or sell more t-shirts for $10 each during the game (and/or the week preceding the game) to students, parents, and school staff, or undertake other fundraising ideas approved by the Teal Attack coordinator and each team's coach. Ovarian cancer literature will be made available to distribute at the sporting event.
- All proceeds from the event will go towards supporting the Michigan Ovarian Cancer Alliance, with your school's athletic department being recognized on the organization's website (www.mioca.org) for being part of a Teal Attack event. When possible MIOCA volunteers will attend a Teal Attack sporting event.
